LAKE SHORE DRIVE APARTMENT

The principal rooms form a sequence of richly paneled spaces in deep-toned wood, where carved moldings, raised panels and ornamental plaster give each room an architecture of its own, and a collection of modern paintings and drawings sits easily within the traditional frame.

The library is lined with ebonized bookcases that frame a Mattaliano Crillon sofa, and the living room centers, enfilade, on a black marble fireplace set into the paneling. The dining room changes key: cream paneled walls and fluted pilasters frame a wide opening onto the library, so each room is seen from the other and the dark shelves read as a picture within the pale room.

The kitchen and pantry are lighter in tone and no less carefully made.

The kitchen and pantry are lighter in tone and no less carefully made. White marble with strong gray veining covers the counters and backsplashes, glass-fronted nickel cases display glassware above cerused oak cabinetry, and the refrigeration is built into a wall of square vellum panels.
